Rogation Days from The Catholic Encyclopedia 1911

Rogation Days, days of prayer, and formerly also of fasting, instituted by the Church to appease God's anger at man's transgressions, to ask protection in calamities, and to obtain a good and bountiful harvest, known in England as "Gang Days" and "Cross Week". The Rogation Days were highly esteemed in England and King Alfred's laws considered a theft committed on these days equal to one committed on Sunday or a higher Church Holy Day. Their celebration continued even into the thirteenth year of Elizabeth, 1571, when one of the ministers of the Established Church inveighed against the Rogation processions, or Gang Days, of Cross Week.

The Rogation Days are the 25th of April, called Major, and the three days before the feast of the Ascension, called Minor. The Major Rogation, which has no connection with the feast of St Mark (fixed for this date much later) seems to be of very early date and to have been introduced to counteract the ancient Robigalia, on which the heathen held processions and supplications to their gods. St Gregory the Great (d. 604) regulated the already existing custom. The Minor Rogations were introduced by St. Mamertus, Bishop of Vienne, and were afterwards ordered by the Fifth Council of Orleans, which was held in 511, and then approved by Leo III (795-816).

The order to be observed in the procession of the Major and Minor Rogations is given in the Roman Ritual. After the antiphon "Exurge Domine", the Litany of the Saints is chanted and each verse and response is said twice. After the verse "Sancta Maria" the procession begins to move. If necessary the Litany may be repeated or some of the Penitential or Gradual Psalms added...If the procession is held, the Rogation Mass is obligatory, and no notice is taken of whatever feast may occur, unless only one Mass is said, for then a commemoration is made of the feast. An exception is made in favour of the patron or titular of the church, of whom the Mass is said with a commemoration of the Rogation. The colour used in the procession and Mass is violet. The Roman Breviary gives this instruction: "All person bound to recite the Office, and who are not present at the procession, are bound to recite the Litany, nor can it be anticipated."

A warm welcome to all visitors and to those who are attending Mass at our Parish, or the Traditional Mass of the Roman Rite, for the first time.

Happy Mother's Day to all of the Moms in the parish!

Please note that on Monday 11 May, Mass will be at 1pm, rather than at the usual time of 9am.

"This is the house that Jack built": A Nursery Rhyme Metaphysic. Please come to Rebuilding Catholic Culture's 9th Annual Dessert Night and Talk on Saturday, May 23 at 7 pm at Our Lady of Lourdes (doors open at 6:30pm). Dr. Celene Sidloski will give a talk on how a simple nursery rhyme can orient both child and adult toward a Christian vision—one in which man's proper participation in the order of creation makes possible an assent to the goodness of being and of the truth of all things. Talk will be followed by our famous cheesecake and brownie bar. Free will donations gratefully accepted. Please RSVP your attendance. Contact Celene Sidloski at (306) 715-1541 or at csidloski@stmcollege.ca.

Today, Sunday 10 May, we will meet for a coffee social after Mass at Buona Vista Park, just about 400 m from the church, off of Victoria Ave.
